Sindri Engilbertsson

Industrial Organisation · Competition Policy · Labour Markets
sindriengilbertsson.github.io · sindrieng@gmail.com

Research Experience

University of Amsterdam 2022 - present
PhD candidate in Economics
Department of Economics, Markets and Organizations group
Advisors: Sander Onderstal and Maarten Pieter Schinkel
Research in industrial organisation and competition policy using economic modelling, lab experiments and market data.

OECD 2025
Intern, Directorate for Employment, Labour and Social Affairs
Analysed the prevalence and effects of non-compete clauses using surveys and administrative employer-employee-linked datasets.

Education

Tinbergen Institute (Erasmus University Rotterdam) 2022
Research Master in Economics, cum laude

University of Iceland 2019
BA in Economics, minor in Philosophy - First Class with Distinction

Working Papers

How the design of cartel fines affects prices: Evidence from the lab
With Sander Onderstal (UvA) and Leonard Treuren (KU Leuven) · Latest version (PDF)
Revise & Resubmit, Journal of Law and Economics

The regulation of non-compete clauses across OECD countries
With Dan Andrews, Tito Boeri, Andrea Garnero, Sara Holttinen, and Lorenzo G. Luisetto · DOI
OECD Social, Employment and Migration Working Papers, No. 332 (2026)

Work in Progress

The Global Spread of Noncompetes: New Facts from 15 OECD Countries
With Dan Andrews (OECD), Tito Boeri (Bocconi University), Andrea Garnero (OECD), Sara Holttinen (OECD), and Federica Meluzzi (LMU Munich).

Strategic Sustainability Investment under Voluntary Cooperation
Solo-authored.

Disrupting an Oligopoly? Costco Entry and Fuel Prices in Iceland
Solo-authored.

Honors and Awards

Tuition waiver and scholarship, Tinbergen Institute 2021 - 2022
Tuition waiver for both years; full scholarship for the second year.

Graduated with distinction, University of Iceland 2019
One of two students in the 2019 economics cohort honored for academic excellence.

University of Iceland Student Achievement and Incentive Fund 2016
Grant of EUR 2,700 and free registration for academic excellence at the secondary level in Iceland.

Research Presentations

3rd Academic Workshop for Icelandic Economists Abroad, Reykjavík, Iceland 2026

Tinbergen Institute Workshop on Collusion in Markets, Amsterdam, the Netherlands 2024
CRESSE Conference, Chania, Greece
Bergen Competition Policy Conference (BECCLE), Bergen, Norway
International Industrial Organization Conference (IIOC), Boston, USA
MaCCI Annual Conference, Mannheim, Germany

Teaching Experience

University of Amsterdam

Empirical Market Analysis (graduate)	2023 - 2026
Industrial Organisation (undergraduate)	2026
Economics in a Global Business World (undergraduate)	2026
Economics of Markets and Organizations (undergraduate)	2023 - 2025

Tinbergen Institute

Fundamental Mathematics (graduate)	2021

University of Iceland

Labour Economics (undergraduate)	2020
Money and Banking (undergraduate)	2019
Microeconomics II, III & IV (undergraduate)	2017 - 2020
Economic Mathematics II (undergraduate)	2017

Work Experience

Icelandic Competition Authority 2020

Conducted an ex-post analysis of the effectiveness of the authority's merger remedies.

Ívera (Icelandic housing company) 2019

Researched the Icelandic housing market and contributed to drafting a report with Professor Ásgeir Jónsson (University of Iceland, Central Bank of Iceland).

Other Activities

Started an industrial organisation discussion group for academics in the Netherlands	2024
Student representative, Educational Board, Tinbergen Institute	2021 - 2022

Skills

Software: Stata, R, oTree (Python), LaTeX, and Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint).
Languages: Icelandic and English (fluent), German (advanced), Dutch (intermediate).